

HENNY PENNY HATCHING

FORMAT OF A SCIENTIFIC REPORT

Title: The name of the report.

Aim: The purpose of the report.

Hypothesis/Prediction: What may happen based on the independent and dependent variables.

Equipment: Equipment and materials needed.

Method: The steps needed to conduct the experiment

Results: The recorded data, this may be a list of observation, tables and graphs.

Conclusion: A summary of the experiment.

References: Any resources you may have used such as books, magazines, internet sites.